

Welcome at the Alsterkrug restaurant

Dear guests,

at the Alsterkrug, hospitality and personal service have been more than just words for almost 30 years – they are the way we approach everything, the promise we make to our guests each day. As a private, family-run business we see it as our mission to provide you with personal, tailored service.

We attach special importance to regional products. The food is prepared lovingly by our chef Christian Bööck and his crew.

If you desire a vegetarian, gluten- or lactose-free dish or wish information about possible additives and allergens please ask our service staff.

For further questions or wishes, do not hesitate to ask us.

All product prices are inclusive of the legal value added tax.
